

DREAM

Dr. Vivekanand Jha

*Every time I wake up from a dream
I fall on the thorn of reality,
clash with destiny's cruelty
and dash to powder like lime under roller.*

*But like an impudent and stubborn;
like crops against weeds;
like a dam against stream;
like glee against grief;
I have decided to wage a war against the dream
and I'd keep on watching till it's decoded into reality.*
