

A Perspective on the Folk-dances of Arunachal Pradesh

Mouchumi Borgohain*

Introduction :-

Arunachal Pradesh, the North-East region of India, endowed with the most colourful history, a distinct geographical area, variegated natural landscape with its different ethnic groups is a sparsely populated mountain area in the extreme north eastern part of the subcontinent. It was more commonly known as the North-Eastern Frontier Agency(NEFA). Arunachal Pradesh the land of the rising sun has a rich cultural heritage. The cultural heritage is kept by its different festivals, folk dances, musics, customs and rituals. In this article an attempt has been made to disseminate the values and significance of folk dances and to make an appeal to preserve and promote the folk dances of this particular region.

Objective of the study:-

- (1) To determine the significance of folk-dance
- (2) To analyse the different folk-dances of Arunachal Pradesh
- (3) Attempt to make a worldwide awareness to their ethnic dresses and ornaments.
- (4) To assist the folk dance related festivals of Arunachal to reflect the richness of Indian Art and Culture.....

To read full Paper, subscribe the journal.

Link Of Subscription...

Assistant Professor, Department of English, Dr. Nobin Bordoloi College, Na-Ali, Dhekiajuli, Titabar, Jorhat*