

Cultural History and Background of Tiwa in Assam

*Dr. Anuwar Hussain Md Wahid

Brief- History

The Lalung Tribe resides in the states of Assam and Meghalaya, northeastern India. These tribes are divided into two main sub-divisions: those who live in the hills and those who live on the plains. The difference is due to terrain and ecology. The Lalung Tribe belongs to a race known as the Bodo. Many legends are surrounding the history of the Lalung, making their origin rather uncertain. It is has been said that their ancestors emigrated from Tibet and followed the path of the Brahmaputra River south into the hills of Assam. Later, perhaps during the mid 1600's, they migrated to the plains.....

Tribes in India

Tribes Map 1 Bagri tribes, Banjara tribes, Ahir tribes, Asur tribes, Bodo tribes, Hmar tribes, Bhutia tribes, Andamanese tribes

Tribes Map 2 Khasi tribes, Bhil tribes, Gaddi tribes, Dhodia tribes, Angami tribes, Chakmas tribe, Oran tribe, Chenchu tribe, Santhal tribe, Chenchu tribe, Jarawa tribe

Tribes Map 3 Gujjar tribes, Khond tribes, Munda tribes, Naga tribes, Gonda tribes, Lalung tribes, Chamar tribes, Toda tribes.....

To read full Paper, subscribe the journal.

Link Of Subscription...

 Assam based Researcher*