

The Critical Opprobrium of Indian Education System: An Unprejudiced Observation in Reference to Hirani's Blockbuster, 3 Idiots

*Angana Mukherjee

Abstract: The paper involves in an impartial criticism on the Indian education system as renowned film maker, Rajkumar Hirani projects in his eye-opening movie, 3 Idiots. In the replete of love, laughter and huge entertainment, the movie transmits a constructive message to the larger community of students, parents and teachers. We have captured this spirit of the movie and tried to relate it with the contemporary Indian education system in real life.

Key Words: Education, System, Policy, Academic, Movie, Hirani, 3 Idiots, Criticism, Culture

Education system of a country reflects its cultural tradition and commensurate with the demand of the society. Hence, education policy has to be framed keeping in mind, receptivity of the students and its utility in the practical affairs of contemporary concern. It should change with the change of time, need of the era and particularly with the change of mindsets of the students. No education system can thrive and sustain which can't satisfy the intellectual hunger of the students and can't contemporize itself with the change of era. At the same time, the success of an education policy depends on the success of the teaching-learning culture of the educational institutions. So education proliferates in a country with the support of these two arms, education policy and good teaching-learning culture.....

To read full Paper, subscribe the journal.

Link Of Subscription...

Assistant Professor in English, Dept. of Basic Science & Humanities, Abacus Institute of Engineering & Management, Mogra, Hoogly,
West Bengal, India*